

The Directors of The Bath Gallery introduce the latest work by Irene Marsh

'Margaret's Buildings Looking South' in a new limited edition of 50 artist-enhanced reproductions.

Irene hand paints a different detail from the painting along with a few notes in the lower border of the print making each numbered reproduction completely unique.

You are cordially invited join us on Saturday August the 29th from 10am at The Bath Gallery when the the new edition will be on show for the first time.
